Why should the innocent be punished for the guilty? Why should the vast majority of honest claimants under as long as they stay on the right side. the homestead and pre-emption acts be defrauded of their rights by the agents Indianola, Jan. 13.h, '86. of the government on the suspicion that some few persons have stolen a portion of the public domain? We do not think that Commissioner Sparks should be a'lowed to play the dog in the manger any longer. The registrars and receivers of the various land offices are supposed to be honest and faithful servants of the government. They are clothed with ample power to decide whether a land claimant is acting in good faith, and they should be ordered to proceed with the business of their offices with all possible dispatch. If they are not fit to be trusted with the work assigned them by law they should be replaced by fitter men.-Denver News, Dem.

The state premium on best six varieties of pears was won by fruit grown by Whittaker at the old stand or to S. H. Mr. G. L. Fisher from trees furnished by Crete Nurseries. The orchard of Fisher, Johnson, Weilage and others, are yielding choice pears in abundance. The dangers to avoid, are rich land, rank, late growth and unsuitable varieties. Crete Nurseries have selected the poorest piece of land they have for a large pear orehard to be set next spring. They will give careful cultivation, but will not manure until the trees commence bearing. The frost being all out the Nurseries are running a 6-horse sub-soiler preparing the field for early spring planting.
